I Love it! I've been using The Celebrity Black Book for a long time - combined with the online database! Great Resources!!

great book, has every thing i was looking for

The ads for this book say that the addresses for these celebrities are "guaranteed verified." All that means is that the postal service says that there is a house at that address. It does NOT mean that the celebrity you are contacting lives there. Also the author "guarantees" your postage back if the address is wrong. Lets pretend that you get a letter sent to your house with the name "Joe Dokes" on it. Assume that the address is yours. How many of you would take the letter to the post office, stand in line for 20 minutes and tell the clerk you are returning this because Joe Dokes doesn't live there??? People would just throw the letter away. So you really have no way of knowing if your letter got to Tom Cruise or not. Just because it didn't come back doesn't mean that Tom got it. And the Postal Service only returns priority and express mail by law--all other classes are never returned to the sender, but simply destroyed. I find it odd that most of the people reviewing this book have never used it. Read their words and you will see this. Buyer beware on this item.
